

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

As a consequence of the new personal data protection regulation in EU (GDPR) that is enforceable on 25 May 2018, we are legally bound to inform all our contacts of how we handle, use and store personal data.

We handle all personal data with respect and confidentiality.

We handle following categories:

Name (title)

Company

E-mail

Phone number

And regarding our suppliers and customers we also handle bank information and the Central Business Register number.

We handle this data in order to maintain our contact records with the purpose of being able to communicate relevant information to our suppliers and customers, and to provide a good service to these.

In case you do not wish to be part of our contact records with your personal data, we kindly ask you to contact us as soon as possible.

Should you have any questions to the above, please do not hesitate to contact Mr. Torben Mogensen on tmo@panpac.dk.
